

Handprint flowers

What you'll need:

- Two pieces of card/coloured paper
- Some green paint
- A flower shaped play dough cutter (if you're feeling adventurous potato printing works well too).
- Something lovely to say about somebody special

Cut one piece of card into a flower pot shape

Stick the flower pot to the bottom half of the 2nd piece of card cover a little hand in green paint make a print to represent the stem of the plant

it should look like this..... taa daa

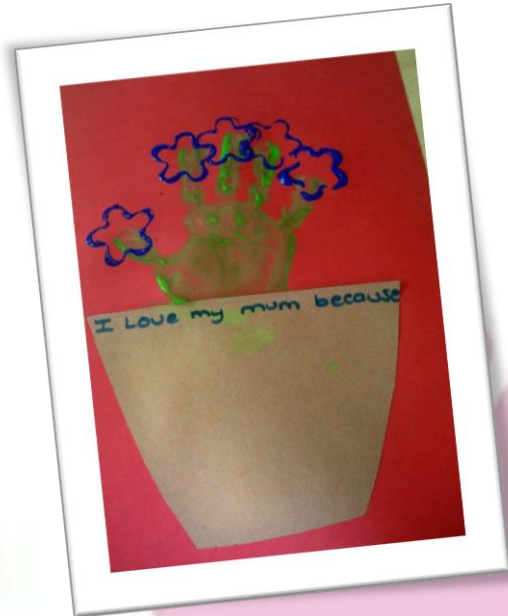

use your playdough cutter (or potato) to create your bouquet

it should look like this.....taa daa

write a message for the one you love xxxx your finished card 😊
